

LCRF “Welcome Gifts” for Christmas to Help destitute refugees

My gift to you this Christmas

I have donated to the London Churches Refugee Fund to enable a destitute refugee or asylum seeker to phone family and friends, offering them the Gift of Friendship.

LCRF work through local projects to provide phone credits, travel passes, hygiene packs and other essentials as well as friendship.

LCRF is offering exclusive ‘Welcome Gifts’ @ £15, £30, or £50, for you to buy and send to friends and family in lieu of a more traditional Christmas present. A gift that will warm the recipient’s heart and help refugees and asylum seekers with phone credit, food or warm clothing and more, as you offer the gifts of friendship, hope and love.
