

Little Amal's London Programme

Amal is a giant child Refugee puppet, built by the puppeteers who built the War Horse puppets, who has been walked by the puppeteers from Syria across Europe to London, to highlight the plight of refugee children (google "Little Amal The Walk" for details and photos). In every city across Europe there have been major Cultural open-air events organised by leading international theatre directors David Lan and Stephen Daldry. As you can see it's looks very exciting and varied and something for everyone. An occasion not to be missed. You may want to copy this programme below and print off these details to go on a flyer to hand out tomorrow. This is a truly unique Cultural and Advocacy Event that spans the whole of Europe connecting countries cities and peoples from Syria, across Europe to London in support of asylum seekers.

22nd October – Lewisham, London

10:00

Deptford Broadway, The Anchor – Griffin Square

A giant fairground wheel has been erected in Little Amal's honour! Join her in Lewisham, the London Borough of Culture 2022 as she discovers Deptford – the first borough in the UK to be recognised as a borough of sanctuary.

23rd October – London

10:00

St Paul's Cathedral

Little Amal will be welcomed to the city by faith leaders and children. An unforgettable performance combining spoken word and music, directed by Phyllida Lloyd will then unfold around Amal! This event will be held outside the Cathedral and is open to all to attend.

13:00

The Globe Theatre

Watch as Little Amal meets the company of Twelfth Night in this iconic performance space.

16:00

The Southbank Centre

Little Amal will attend Welcome Wishes, a special event in the London Literature Festival. Join her for interactive storytelling, aimed at spreading the message of global community and friendship contained in Swallow's Kiss – a new novel written by Sita Brahmachari and illustrated by Jane Ray.

17:45

National Theatre

Singer-songwriter Juliana Yazbeck will perform a welcoming solo that will lead into the choir performing 'I Am My Own Way Home' from Pericles. Watch this performance on the Terraces from below with Little Amal.

19:00

Somerset House

Follow Little Amal into the beautiful courtyard, and form an audience for an original contemporary dance piece. Choreographed by Ruby Portus, this troupe is composed of the National Youth Dance Co and the Sadlers Wells Company of Elders, dancing to live music from Baque Luar.

24th October – London

11:00 & 13:00

Victoria & Albert Museum

Little Amal will attend a birthday party for young friends, including cake made by Yotam Ottolenghi! Book a free museum entry ticket for 11.00 or 13.00 to join her here

16:00

Trafalgar Square

Boy Blue will stage a spectacular celebration for Amal's birthday, featuring dance and hip hop in this iconic setting.

19:00

The Roundhouse, Camden

A one-off concert full of surprises and an extraordinary line-up will finish Amal's birthday in epic style! Tickets available for purchase now here

25th October – London

14:00

Westminster Cathedral

The public are invited to join Little Amal with a special prayer service.